SECRET

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COURSEL

Tuesday - 23 June 1764

		25
5X1	After talking with	25
5X1	After talking with of WH Division, I advised Dr. James Sheldon, of the Foreign News Service, that we did not feel we could be of assistance in the two projects which he has discussed with us most recently. Sheldon plans to be in Washington on Thursday. We will discuss the matter further with him at that time.	25
5X1	of WH Division, I advised Dr. James Shaiden, of the Foreign News Service, that we did not feel we could be of assistance in the two projects which he has discussed with us most recently. Shelden plans to be in Washington on Thursday. We will discuss the matter further with him at that time. Delivered to Russ Blandford, House Armed	25 25
5X1	of WH Division, I advised Dr. James Shaiden, of the Foreign News Service, that we did not feel we could be of assistance in the two projects which he has discussed with us most recently. Shelden plans to be in Washington on Thursday. We will discuss the matter further with him at that time.
5X1	Service, that we did not feel we could be of assistance in the two projects which he has discussed with as most recently. Shelden plans to be in Washington on Thursday. We will discuss the matter further with him at that time. Delivered to Russ Plandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, those portions of the Director's briefing paper which dealt with Lace and Viet Nam. By way of fellow-up to our previous
5X1	of WH Division, I advised Dr. James Shaidon, of the Foreign News Service, that we did not feel we could be of assistance in the two projects which he has discussed with us must recently. Sheldon plans to be in Washington on Thursday. We will discuss the matter further with him at that time. Delivered to Russ Plandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, those portions of the Director's briefing paper which dealt with Laos and Viet Nam. By way of fellow-up to our previous conversations and his expression of interest in visiting the Agency, I	25
5X1	Service, that we did not feel we could be of assistance in the two projects which he has discussed with as most recently. Shelden plans to be in Washington on Thursday. We will discuss the matter further with him at that time. Delivered to Russ Plandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, those portions of the Director's briefing paper which dealt with Lace and Viet Nam. By way of fellow-up to our previous	25

MORI/CDF

SECRET